NEW POLICE GOLF CART & VANS ON OUR DIME ONCE MORE

BN Agent, X

More vans and more golf carts, the police force is continuing to ramp up their fleet of vehicles while making it be known to the taxpayers that our bottom dollar is being spent to comfort there wants rather than needs. This new feet of golf carts will be used for Arawak Cay and to cover the grounds on that area, as if the police presence wasn't strong enough as is. Well as you all should know a new set of police officers were hired along with a new set of riot gear. We don't know what the police are preparing for but it seems like some sort of mini civil war is in their plans, so please be aware and show the men in blue some respect in this crazy season.

BPL YELLOW RIBBON MEAN YA' LIGHT OFF!

BN Agent, X

So the yellow ribbon is out and BPL is letting it be known to whoever walks pass your meter, how much you owe them! Yep you guessed it your neighbours can now know why your power is off and how much your behind on your bill.

On top of this to top it off BPL was just given permission to add additional fees on to our bills, so yes everyone's bill will be higher this christmas and continue into the new year and forever more. As if we ever got over the fuel surcharge.

Why do we have to pay for a fuel surcharge bill, if we are already paying the electricity bill in the first place? Fuel surcharge, what the hell is this? Why do we have to pay a percentage of the fuel bill, if we are already paying for the electricity bill? So what exactly is BPL saying to us, they don't know how to maintain paying for their fuel, so we must chip in to make sure their fuel is paid for as well. This is straight being taken advantage of. As a people we must take a stance towards the wrong being done to us in this power company.

THE DEATH OF FIRE AND THEFT

NAME: JULIAN COLLIE AKA "HEADS"

In a world of street drugs & arms dealing, their is a high peek, which also comes along with envy and enimes, but it's up to you to determine how you should react to both. Did heads make the right move with his enemy?

BN Agent, X

It begins with Tj of the notorious Order gang, who had a minor vibe with persons in Fire and theft, which escalated over a period of time. It got so serious to the point, Fire and Theft was able to get someone who knew Tj to get his house location, that person was Aaron. Aaron was found a few days later dead. Now here comes the shocker the notorious Tj begins to feel threatened because of persons knowing his location, so he began sleeping on his rooftop at his home.

So happens weeks later on a cold night at the Oscar Bar, if you can remember It was bar located opposite the bridge. The leader of the known gang Fire & Theft Heads and Tj apparently bucked after both looking for each other for the past couple weeks. So instantly an argument broke out in the club which lead to an altercation and several people shot while one of Heads henchmen was shot and killed during the crossfire. The shoot out was so brutal Heads was left dragging his henchmen out the door by his collar while shooting back Tj rivals. Meanwhile inside of the club gunshots were ringing everywhere, at persons feet gunmen were on the floor firing and persons shoulder level gunmen were above the eye level firing. It was so serious people tried to get into the ceiling of the club just to escape the bullets that were ringing out everywhere.

As time passed the tension between both gangs grew and they got blood hungry. Which evidently rustled in Heads being shot and killed and Tj dying while in police custody. After this Skulla took over the gang Fire and theft but he ultimately murdered in a shooting as well. Then Vado began to lead the gang who later also was murdered while on farrington road washing his vehicle. Then came the rise of 80 Grand who also later on was murdered in a shooting.

BONGIE OF THE DAY IS AWARDED TO SLEEPING ON THE GARBAGE TRUCK

IT TAKES A SUPER LEVEL OF SKILLS TO SLEEP LIKE THIS.

BN Agent, X

Now we have all have our sleepy days at work but how tired can you be to black out on a moving truck and not any truck, a heavy duty garbage truck. Well this guy had no shame in making it be known that either he was completely wiped out from tiredness or still having a hangover from the night before. Either way he is our bongie of the day, mainly because his safety was at risk and he did not give not one ounce of care or be too hard on your little nap.

towards it at all. It takes skill to stretch across a garbage truck and keep your balance while your asleep.

This photo will go down in history as a forever classic in the bongie of the day and if your at work and your boss ever complain about you dozing off, let them know that there are people out here taking full advantage of resting hours on other jobs, so they shouldn't get upset

GRAND PA DOING HOUSE BREAKING

BN Agent, R

Another elderly bandit caught in the act! Earlier this week a lone mature man was caught on surveillance video trespassing and stealing in the Shirley Street area. The man can be seen jumping a wall to access the premises where he later leaves with two plastic bags of stolen goods.

Why is it that older folks are now coming out coming theft crimes? Is this a desperate act of trying to sustain themselves? What is going on?

MARGARINE OVERFLOW IN FOOD STORES

BN Agent, X

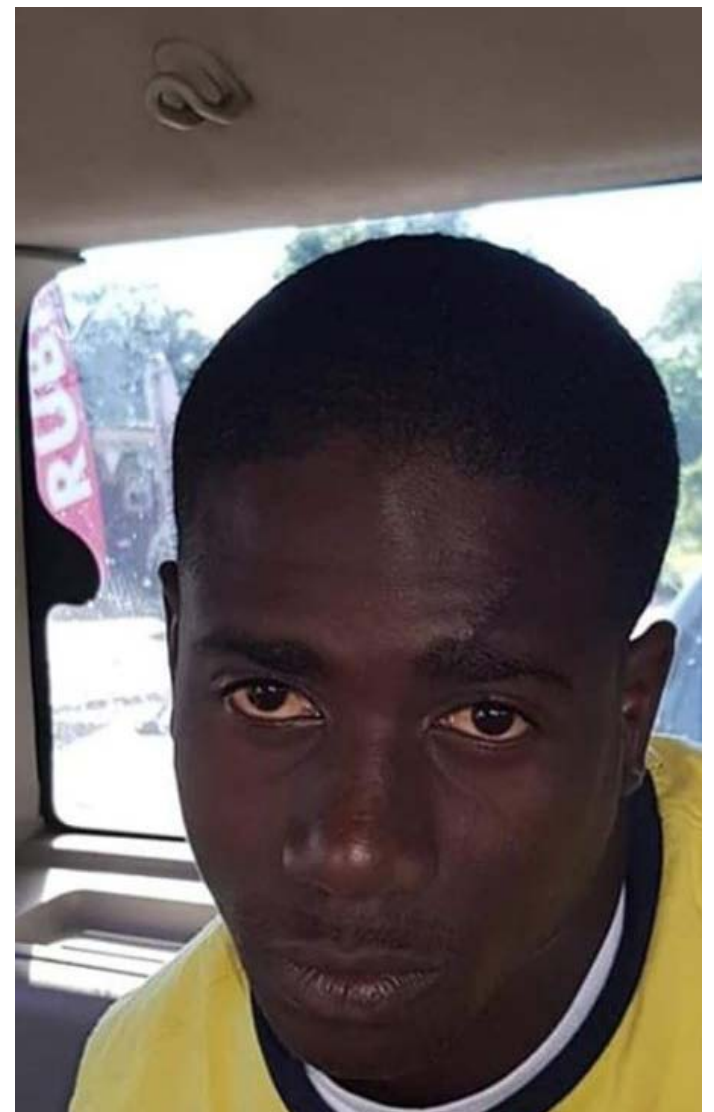

Do you know that margarine is a chemically engineered product that is indigestible? It is a form of plastic. It is not what you think it is. The body cannot digest it and it was not made for consumption. Yet, today in grocery stores throughout New Providence it is being purchased as an edible grocery item and consumed regularly. And you wonder why you are sick?
